March 22

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I have reported to Mr. Wilson at length the substance of our conversation on Thursday. He was deeply interested - in no feature more than in your description of conditions in Caribbean America. He had heard from others, but less well-informed, sources stories to which your ac-count gave new importance.

The suggestion regarding the insertion of a sentence in the inaugural address is impracticable (as you will see from the general nature of this document) but you may rest assured that Mr.
Wilson will take very early steps to correct the serious misunderstandings that prevail in the countries to the south of us:

All the matters touched upon were reported on as faithfully and fully as my memory allowed - and of course I handed Mr. Wilson the written memorandum.

I can assure you that the President & effect understands the value of your communications, and sincerely appreciate your purely patriotic purpose.

I am, dear Mr. Benton,

Sincerely Yours,

Wm Bayard Hale
